Program Background

As the economic engine of Southern California, the City of Los Angeles is home to aerospace, advanced mobility, bioscience, digital media and entertainment, and other key industries. The Los Angeles Department of Water and Power (LADWP) wants your business to be part of it. LADWP's Business Promotion Bill Credit (BPBC) Program, offers eligible businesses, which are new to LADWP, monthly bill credits on electricity charges¹ for the first three years of operation. A qualifying new commercial electric service customer may receive a 7.6% credit on electricity charges each month for the first year. During the second year, it may receive a 5% monthly credit, followed by a 2.5% credit per month during the third full year of operation.² This program is offered on a first come, first served basis.

Eligibility Requirements

To qualify, a business must:

- Not have previously been an LADWP customer
- Establish permanent commercial electric service
- Maintain no less than 100 kW per month of electrical demand served at 4.8 kV or above

How to Apply

- Download the BPBC application at www.ladwp.com/bpbc; or
- Request an application at sbs@ladwp.com; or
- Call (800) 864-4409;
- Complete and submit all required forms to sbs@ladwp.com
