

Operation NEXT & Hyperion 2035

Program Facilities

A new advanced water purification facility would be installed at the existing HWRP

New conveyance facilities (pipelines and pump stations) to transport the treated water to groundwater recharge facilities and to the existing distribution system

New wells and other facilities for injecting and extracting groundwater in the Central, West Coast, and San Fernando Groundwater Basins

